GENERAL INFORMATION

Summer training is commonly referred to as summer camp by cadets. The hundreds of locally delivered Cadet Activities Program (CAP) Sites, along with the several Cadet Training Centres (CTCs) across Canada offer a variety of exciting and dynamic training courses. Some are located in unique settings such as the Rocky Mountains of Vernon CTC in British Columbia and others offer specialized training, such as Connaught CTC where the training Centre's focal point is advanced training in marksmanship.

Regardless of where a cadet goes for summer training, they are certain to have a fun and rewarding summer. Summer training offers, for some, an opportunity to travel and meet new people from across Canada while learning.

OPERATING IN A PANDEMIC ENVIRONMENT

Due to the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic, all cadet program training and activities may be modified to safely operate in a COVID-19 environment. Further to this, at any time during the planning or execution of training and activities; including 2022 summer training, courses, billets, and/or delivery methodology may have to be altered, delayed, or cancelled based on changes in the COVID-19 environment.

Planning is actively underway to deliver the courses listed in this information brochure, in-person at CAP and CTC sites in 2022. A decision should be confirmed and announced in early May as to whether in-person CTC courses will proceed. To ensure all is ready in the event of a favourable decision, the application and selection process needs to proceed following normal timelines. All Army Cadet Serials are posted in Fortress and open to all corps. All Army Cadet Selections will be made by RCSU Central J5.
